Álbum: Private Music - 2025

As you drift off in bed
Reside, residing in Translucent walls you've made
Crumble down again

I'm hovering in space
Embracing the lights, discovering something else

As you drift out in space
In time, we unite again
Translucent clock display
Dissolves again

We're hurdling through space
Embracing the night, discovering each other's ways

Keep warm here beside me, holding you tightly
We gaze at the night
We own it, it's divine
We ride (we ride)

As you drift out of it
You descend to ground again
The porch light will fade and die
You wake

I'll keep loving you from space
Embracing our time of discovery, discovering

Laying beside me, holding you tightly
Roaming through space
We owned it, it's divine
We ride, we ride

We ride, we ride
We ride
